Museums of Old York is a non-profit organization

Tues, July 5 I Spy With My Little Eye

Open your eyes wide to count the modern items hidden among history throughout our buildings. Find the rubber ball, toy car, plastic cup and other items that don't belong on the tours. Ages 5-10, meet at the Remick Barn.

Thurs, July 7 Games Galore!

Celebrate games through history! Play Graces, Hoop n Stick, Stilts and Tops. Make a Nine Men's Morris set to take home and play a room size game of Old York Opolly where you are a game piece! Ages 5-12, meet at the Remick Barn.

Tues July 12 Paper Plain and Pretty

Travel to China to experience the ancient art of paper making and origami. Turn fabric, paper and plants into beautiful new paper to take home and while it dries create some origami animals. Ages 5-12, meet at the Remick Barn.

Thurs July 14 Painting History

Join us as we head outside with palettes, paint, and paper. Use the Elizabeth Perkins House as inspiration to create your own rendition of history. Ages 8-12. Meet at the Elizabeth Perkins House

Tues, July 19 Alphabet Arts

Learn the calligraphy alphabet using a quill pen and ink. Practice your embroidery by making an alphabet sampler like children in the olden days. Ages 5-8, meet at the Remick Barn.

Family Scrapbooking

Wed, July 20th 2:00-4:00pm

Grandparents, Moms and Dads, join us with your kids as we create and preserve memories. Learn archival techniques used to preserve photos and memorabilia for years to come. Look at examples of historic scrapbooks and bring your own family photos, drawings, and memorabilia to begin creating an archival quality family scrapbook. Everyone welcome, $20 per family scrapbook.

Thurs, July 21 Colonial Cooking

Pies, cakes, breads and pudding! Help a Colonial mistress make her favorite treats over the hearth. Enjoy the goodies you bake and record the recipes to try at home. Ages 8-12, meet at the Remick Barn.

Theatrical History Camp

Monday-Friday, July 25-29 9am-2pm
$140 non-members $120 member

Do you love acting, writing scripts, choosing costumes and performing? Then join us as we tour historic buildings listening to the exciting stories of the people who lived and worked in them. Return to the Remick Barn to create short skits based on these characters. Turn your favorite story into a full blown play with props and costumes to perform for your parents on Friday!

Those interested can play a character in Thursday evening's historic drama open to the public in the Old Gao! Ages 7-12, meet at the Remick Barn.

Tues, August 2 Sailors of the Sea

Become a 19th century sailor! Listen to pirate stories, learn to tie knots, carve scrimshaw and make a flag to hang from the mast. Ages 5-12, meet at the John Hancock Warehouse.

Thurs, August 4 Lady's Life

Meet Elizabeth Perkins, tour the house she lived in from 1900-1952 and listen to her crazy stories. Enjoy her gardens and create a pressed flower window decoration. Ages 8-12, meet at the Elizabeth Perkins House.

Tues, August 9 First Settlers

You've been captured by the Native Americans in 1692! Embark on the trek to Canada and decide your fate along the way. Look at tools and hear stories about the Native Americans and try on clothes like those worn by the first English settlers. Ages 5-12, meet at the Remick Barn.

Thurs, August 11 Trapped in Gao!

Become a prisoner sent to jail in York. Get punished in the pillory, create a craft you can sell to pay off your debt and write a letter in jail code to escape. Ages 7-12, meet at the Remick Barn.

Tues, August 16 Cow Craze

Churn cream into butter, hand crank vanilla ice cream, and bake a cheese cake and biscuits on the hearth. Feast on the amazing wares you've made. Ages 5-12, meet at the Remick Barn.

Thurs August 18 Wonders of Weaving

Transform wool into yarn and yarn into cloth using a drop spindle and two different types of looms. Start weaving a bag you can take home to finish. Ages 8-12. Meet at the Remick Barn.

Tues, August 23 On the Home Front

Explore WWII through our brand new exhibit of army uniforms, guns and stories in Jefferds Tavern. Learn what life was like on the home front while the men were away at war. Ages 5-12, meet at the Remick Barn.

Thurs, August 25 School Days

Experience school in a one room school house. Write with a quill pen, practice arithmetic on a slate and enjoy recess in the school yard. Plus make some school supplies to use in your real classroom. Ages 5-12, meet at the Remick Barn.
